

System Designs

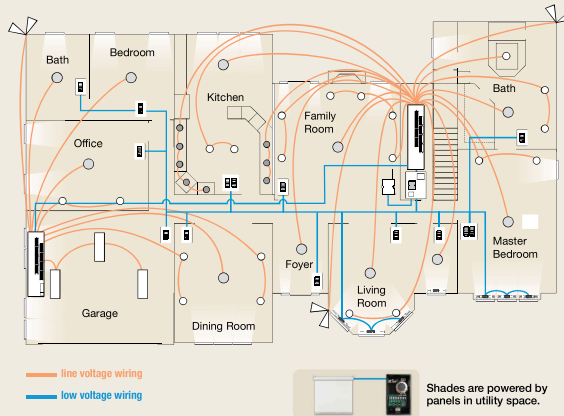

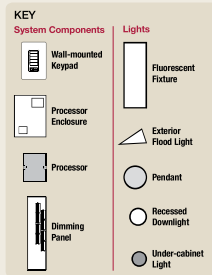

Localized Design

- Switches are replaced with system dimmers or switches
- Table and floor lamps controlled by lamp dimmers
- Tabletop and wall-mounted hybrid keypads and whole-home control
- Processor and repeater in utility space

Centralized Design

- All lights and shades are powered by remote power panels
- Wired keypads provide control in rooms as well as whole-home control
- Wall clutter is minimized

Hybrid Design

- Centralized design in rooms with many lights
- Keypads provide control in these rooms and whole-home control
- Local controls in guest rooms, powder rooms, etc.

